FROM THE RECTOR - Monsignor Anthony Mancini

My dear Brothers and Sisters,
I would like to share with you the following meditation:

Set Free by Christ's Law

In God alone can the human will find absolute and perfect peace. God is the only end of man. All our life on earth is the truthful and exact image of a pilgrimage. Now Christ is the "Way," for we can never reach God, the supreme and ultimate good, by this toilsome and doubtful road of mortal life, except with Christ as our leader and guide. How so? Firstly and chiefly by his grace; but this would remain "void" in man if the precepts of his law were neglected. For as was necessarily the case after Jesus Christ had won our salvation, he left behind him his Law for the protection and welfare of the human race, under the guidance of which men, converted from evil life, might safely tend towards God. Going, teach ye all nations...teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you (Mt 28:19-20).

Various natural appetites attract man on one side and the other; the allurements of the material world impel his soul to follow after what is pleasant rather than the law of Christ. Still, we must strive our best and resist our natural inclinations with all our strength unto the obedience of Christ. For unless they obey reason, they become our masters, and carrying the whole man away from Christ, make him their slave. In this contest, every man must be prepared to undergo hardships and troubles for Christ's sake. It is difficult to reject what so powerfully entices and delights. It is hard and painful to despise the supposed goods of the senses and of fortune for the will and precepts of Christ our Lord. But the Christian is absolutely obliged to be firm, and patient in suffering, if he wish to lead a Christian life.

It is reasonable, therefore, not to expect an end to troubles in this world, but rather to steel one's soul to bear troubles, by which we are taught to look forward with certainty to supreme happiness. Christ has not promised eternal bliss in heaven to riches, nor to a life of ease, to honors, or to power, but to long-suffering and to tears, to the love of justice and to cleanness of heart.

POPE LEO XIII

Pope Leo XIII († 1903) reigned from 1878 to 1903.

2026 - CATHOLIC CHARITY APPEAL

This year's Appeal is especially meaningful as it marks Bishop Bruce Lewandowski's first Appeal in the Diocese of Providence. Since 1925, your generosity has made life-changing and life-saving services possible for people across Rhode Island. As we begin, I invite you to open your hearts and ask how God is calling you to serve our brothers and sisters in Christ this year. Our theme, "One Faith, One Hope," reminds us that in seasons of change and times of uncertainty, we can trust in God's providence. Through the Appeal, we become instruments of that providence—bringing hope to the hopeless and tangible care to those in need. With everyone doing their part, I am confident we can reach-and surpass-our parish goal of $41,895. You can respond at any time by mail or pledge securely online at the diocesan website: dioceseofprovidence.org/CCA
