Prayer to Jesus Before the Blessed Sacrament

Jesus, each time I look at the sacred Host, sanctify my eyes, that they may close more and more to all that is merely earthly.

Jesus, each time I look at the sacred Host, send a ray of divine light into my soul, that I may better know You and myself.

Jesus, each time I look at the sacred Host, send a flame of divine love into my heart to consume everything in it that is displeasing to You and to set it all on fire with Your love.

Now and in eternity may my only desire be to contemplate the infinite beauty of Your divine countenance which delights the angels. Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration is the adoration of Jesus Christ present in the Holy Eucharist. It is a prayerful devotion believed to be in existence as early as the 4th century.
It is the coming in prayer before the Real Presence of God found in the exposed Blessed Sacrament. Christ's great love for us was shown when he was crucified on the cross to pay the penalty for our sins and give us eternal life. He loves us without limit, and offers Himself to us in the Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Every time we look at the Blessed Sacrament our place in Heaven is raised forever.

St. Gertrude the Great

FROM THE RECTOR

My dear Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to share with you the following meditation:

“Be uprooted and planted in the sea”

This can be interpreted literally, as in Saint Gregory Thaumaturge and the mountain [that had blocked the construction of a church], the staffs of several saints that suddenly turned into tall trees, or the floods and fires miraculously stopped. It can also be interpreted figuratively, as in the instant conversions, the virtues arising so unexpectedly in souls flooded with passion.

That is the force of prayer, believing prayer, and having steadfast faith that it will be answered because the asker believes in three things: the infinite goodness and infinite power of God, and the veracity of his words—words in which he often promised in the holy Gospel always to respond to our faith. People’s prayers will be answered if they have unwavering faith that if they pray with humility and trust they will receive, either what they are seeking for or something better than what they are asking for. Their prayers, far from being useless and ignored, will always, obtain good, either what they are asking for or (God’s goodness being so great) something better. God is so good that he sets no limits on the effectiveness of our prayers, but no matter how great our requests are, his power and goodness will always surpass them. He allows himself to give us even more than we ask for.

My God, give me that faith, and since my prayers can do so much good, may I pray and pray and pray, for myself and those you have placed beside me in my life. Let me pray to you with profound faith in the effectiveness of humble, believing prayers the way you want me to pray, with that humility and faith, and let me pray to you as much as you want me to, for your glory, for the good of your children, to do the most good for your children and thus to glorify you the most, in you, through you, and for you.

SAINT CHARLES DE FOUCAULD

Saint Charles de Foucauld († 1916), contemplative and mystic, lived among the Tuareg people of Algeria. His life and writings are the inspiration for the Congregation of the Little Brothers of Jesus.

Peace,
Monsignor Mancini
